

The book cover is made of a dark red material with a prominent, irregular texture, resembling cracked earth or a rough stone surface. A rectangular title plate is attached to the bottom center of the cover. The plate has a slightly raised, metallic appearance and features the text "THE 1953 MILLSTREAM" in a bold, serif font. The letters are a light color, possibly gold or silver, which stands out against the dark background.

THE 1953
MILLSTREAM

FARM LIFE SCHOOL
Vanceboro, North Carolina

Mr. E. P. Blair, Principal

Principal

Mr. E. P. Blair, our Principal, has endeared himself to the seniors and students of Farm Life by a score of sacrificial years of service to us and to our community. We are indeed grateful to him and for him, and find ourselves so much richer because of his ever-present guidance.

The School Song

In Craven County's chosen spot,
We have casted in our lot,

Dear old Farm Life School to thee we lift our song.

Near thy level fields so fair,
We shall breathe the balmy air,

While with merry hearts the chorus we prolong.

As the morning sunbeams' light,
Greets thee o'er the forest height,

So our tribute, we as freely to thee bring.

Youth's true homage full and free,
We thus gladly render thee

Dear old Farm Life School thy praise we freely sing.

To thee, guardian of our youth,

Faithful guide to light and truth,

We, thy children, bring our songs of grateful praise,

And when we shall leave thy halls,

We shall ne'er forget thy calls,

Dear old Farm Life School the scene of happy days.

Chorus

Sing we a song of our dear Farm Life School

Fondly we love thee still.

And wherever we may be,

Fond mem'ry turns to thee,

And our many friends we have at Farm Life School.

GRADEMOTHERS

Our sincere thanks and deepest regards to these Mothers of ours—Grademothers in the true sense of the word.

CLASS OF 1953

In September of 1949, Farm Life was awakened with the presence of 72 green Freshmen who had no idea which way to go or to turn. But needless to say at the tone of the last bell each student had been directed to his rightful place and settled down for registration. Our advisors for our first year were Miss Mary Barden Taylor and Mr. Daniel Drew.

At our first class meeting we elected for our officers to guide us during the year—President, Nick Ewell; Vice-President, Beatrice Laughinghouse; Secretary and Treasurer, Donald Ormond; none of whom are with us now—four years later.

The big event of the freshman year was a party held in the gymnasium honoring the Seniors, where we enjoyed games and refreshments.

The first day of our Sophomore year was not as confusing as our Freshman year. We knew where the classrooms were and we knew the names of our teachers. Our advisors this year were Mrs. Joe Simpson and Mr. Seth Henderson. We had lost 9 of our members but still had a large class of 63. Officers chosen this year were—President, Beverly Ross; Vice-President, Loyce Fillingame; Secretary, Betty Baysden; and Treasurer, Joanna Williams.

We entertained the Seniors at the Woodman Hall in Ernul with a chicken-salad supper and a dance afterwards.

Our third year at Farm Life was to be a big one for us. Nine more of our students had dropped out. Our enrollment now was 54. The advisors were Miss Joy Bass and Miss Camilla Selby.

We welcomed to our group several new faces from Fort Barnwell who rapidly became adjusted to Farm Life School. One of this number was elected President of our class.

The newly elected officers were—President, Iris Bland; Vice-President, Billy Butler; Secretary, Loyce Fillingame; Treasurer, Betty Baysden.

Our class rings that we had looked forward to for so long were received when we returned from the Christmas holidays.

We entertained the Seniors for a third time with a gala affair—the Junior-Senior Banquet, carrying out the theme of Holiday Inn. This was a great success and all of our class took part in preparing for this outstanding event.

At last! The most important year of our life came our way—our Senior year. The enrollment was down to 46. We got off to a good start with a new advisor, Mrs. Vivian Taylor. Officers elected at the first class meeting were as follows: President, Loyce Fillingame; Vice-President, Calvin Miller; Secretary, Letha Heath; Treasurer, Billy Butler, and Reporter, Leslie Rouse.

We decided to have a supper to help defray our expenses for our trip to Washington, D. C. Our grademothers did an excellent job of helping us prepare and serve this supper. The amount of $83.05 was cleared.

Since our biggest task this year was to send to press our 1953 Annual—The Millstream, our staff was elected. Then the happy rush of getting ads and taking pictures was begun.

Next we picked our superlatives, invitations, caps and gowns.

The cast for our play, "Just Ducky," was selected. The date was set for March.

As this The 1953 Millstream goes to press, we are looking forward to our trip to Washington, D. C., Junior-Senior Banquet, Alumni Banquet, Woman's Betterment Reception, Baccalaureate Sermon, Class Day Exercises, and last of all, to our most important goal of the year—Graduation.

CLASS PROPHECY

As we travel from place to place and see many weird and wonderful things, we also meet some strange people. Of all the people I have met, I shall never forget the kind old man of magic, who bestowed upon me the power to look into the future. I first met him in a park. He was sitting on a bench with his head bowed deep in his hands, looking as if he had lost his very best friend. I sat down beside him and said, "Pardon me, Friend, but are you sick?" He said, "No, I just have a very big problem. You see I am a man of magic, and as I grow old and weak so does my magic. I am hoping someday to find a young person with ability and judgment to carry on my magic work for me."

So here I am, a man who can look into the future, a "Prophet." My first thought after receiving this power was, "What will my old friends at Farm Life School be doing years from now?" So I closed my eyes and said a few words of magic. When I opened them again, I saw before me the lives of the ones in the Senior Class of 1953.

I first see a very touching scene, Loyce Fillingame, a loving wife and devoted mother, is trying to get her small sons to do a small chore for her. As I listened I heard her say in her loveliest voice, "Git busy, Young uns, before I call your Paw."

Now I see two dignified young gentlemen, Billy Butler and Calvin Miller, who are senators, or at least they are members of the Washington Senators' Ball Club. It seems that they have positions that none of the other players can act as substitutes. One is bat boy and the other is in charge of the refreshment department—a water boy.

Wayne Wood and Delmar Tilghman are making a fortune in the dairy business, or were until Delmar was drafted into the Army and left Wayne holding the bag.

William Haddock is now a famous actor, the greatest discovery since Clark Gable.

Kathleen Worley and Lilar Gray Wilson are trying desperately to revive silent movies, but the chances of success are few, so they are switching to television.

Iris Bland and Beatrice Cox are happily married and each of them has seven children. I believe the girls think children are cheaper by the dozen.

And now I see Vanceboro. It seems there is quite a bit of excitement going on. Curtis Morris and Levie Powers are running for mayor, with Janice Morris and Lois McLawhorn as their secretaries, and Earl Hill and Walter Evans as campaign managers. Who knows? One of them may be our next President.

There seems to be a bit of confusion around the drug store. The manager is complaining about two of the local lads, Joel Wetherington and Leslie Rouse, who have in the last few years worn out three booths and caused four of the waitresses to quit work, because they sit there for hours sipping nickel cokes and complaining about slow service.

Shirley Knox and Verdie Lee Nobles have become models in New York.

Ramona Edwards and Irene Foy are beauticians. They have discovered a new shampoo that will rid you of dandruff once and for all. It also relieves you of your hair and scalp.

Letha Heath and Lue Rhe Jones are a comedy team on television. They are known as the female Martin & Lewis. Incidentally, since their great success in TV, the original Martin & Lewis team is considering retirement.

Beverly Ross is an idol of movie goers. He has the teen-agers screaming and the old ladies sighing. Valentino couldn't have done better.

Billy Jackson, Jesse Lee Wooten, William Wetherington, and James Luther Toler have the makings of a fine Barber-shop Quartet, with the exception of one thing—the barber-shop.

Betty Baysden is a nurse in Johns Hopkins Hospital. Her favorite patient is Lester McCoy.

Kirby Norman and Hilton Russell are wealthy real-estate agents. Rumors are that they sold ten acres of land to a man from New York for ten dollars. That would have been a bargain if the land hadn't been located five miles off the coast of Florida.

J. P. Cauley and Eugene Manning own a dude ranch in Texas out in the wild, woolly West, where a man is a man.

Roy Buck is a reporter for a leading New York newspaper. As I see him now, he is interviewing the new mayor of New York City, George Fillingame.

Elva Forrest and Betty Gaskins are the authors of a very good book entitled, "Plenty of Room for the Groom."

Vera Stern is the woman's athletic director at Duke University. She is developing new basketball strategy and thinks basketball would be much more exciting if they used three goals instead of just two.

Joyce Fillingame is a noted dress designer. She and one of her assistants, Nellie Smith, designed the lovely gown that Mamie Eisenhower wore at the Inaugural Ball.

Odell Lewis is chief dietitian for the White House. She is assisted by Barbara Jean Wilkinson.

Geraldine Hawks is going to try to be the next woman to swim the English Channel, and under the fine coaching of Irma Joyce Lewis, how could she fail?

Now as the vision is fading and all of the lives of the Senior class of 1953 have been passed in review, I sit and marvel at the great things this graduating class has accomplished.

Levie Powers, Jr., leaves his heart to Mary Alice Smith.

Curtis Morris leaves his position as Mr. Blair's errand boy to Phillip Morris.

Lois McLawhorn and Janice Morris leave their good grades in English to Earl Cousins and Claude Davis.

Billy Butler leaves his many girl friends to Richard Gladson.

Earl Hill leaves his position as official gasser of buses to anyone wanting to get out of fifth period study hall.

J. P. Cauley leaves his ability to sleep through classes to Virginia Pappas.

Elva Forrest leaves her ability to be true to her boy friends to Muriel Whitford.

Roy Buck leaves his neatness to Earl Wright.

Odell Lewis leaves her will to learn Geography to Bettie Ann Lewis.

Nellie Smith leaves her flirty ways to Dorothy Evans.

Beatrice Cox leaves her wavy hair to Earl Lloyd.

Iris Bland and Letha Heath leave their place in the office to Margaret Cannon and Mary Ward.

Loyce and Joyce Fillingame leave their ability not to be alike to Ronald and Donald Smith.

George Fillingame leaves his boasting ways to Haywood Toler.

William Haddock leaves his quick temper to J. D. McGowan.

Eugene Manning leaves his good grades in World Geography to Linda Butler.

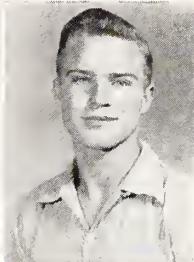

Hilton Russel leaves his love for acting on the stage to Sammie Cutler.

Betty Baysden leaves the pleasure of writing "The Last Will and Testament" to anyone who is lucky enough to get the job next year.

We do herewith name and appoint Betty Baysden, executor of this document. In witness whereof, we, the Senior Class, do hereunto set our hands and seal, this twenty-ninth day of May in the year of one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

A T H L E T I C S

First row—J. D. McGowan, Walter Hoyle, Billy Butler, Kenneth Midycette, Leslie Mills, Earl Wright.

Third row—Clarence Powell, Terry Witherington, Charles Hartley, Sammie Cutler, Calvin Miller, Graham Wetherington, Bobby Walker.

Football

The football team of Vanceboro, playing in the Coastal Conference, came out on the short end of a .500 season. Winning only two of ten games, the boys couldn't seem to get going. They played some good games though, such as the 36-27 ball game with Central School, and of course the 47-0 score against South Edgecombe. Only three boys, Calvin Miller, Billy Butler, and Curtis Morris, Co-captain, will be lost via graduation, so here's hoping that the boys next year will prove themselves worthy of winning a great deal of ball games.

Basketball

The Red Raiders of Farm Life School under the leadership of their new coach, Mr. E. D. Thompson, haven't quite lived up to expectations so far this season, but the boys have played a lot of good and close games. The future is bright in the respect that the Junior Varsity, a bunch of talented freshmen, will be up to bolster the varsity next year. Thus far this season the team has won 7 and lost 9 games, but with a little luck and some more spirit the team could go on to victory. The Red Raiders are entered in the Annual County Tournament and the Coastal Conference Tournament. So good luck to the boys who don the Red and White for F. L. S.!

Girls' Basketball

The ranks of the Red and White were depleted by way of graduation last spring. The entire starting lineup consisting of some of the best in Farm Life School history received their diplomas in 1952.

However, the spirit and determination of those who were left paid off in large dividends—Doris Rose Bryan, Patsy Sammons, Patricia Laughinghouse, Anna Lancaster, Frances Johnson, and Vera Stern, aided by Sophomores Janet Taylor and Frances Cayton and Freshman Vivian Lockhart have given the fans plenty of thrills with their excellent play, and as the Millstream goes to press, the season's record is eight wins, seven losses, and one tie.

This is an excellent record in view of the fact that all of the opponents had holdovers from last year's squad with which to build. The Farm Life girls are leading the Coastal Conference with six wins and no losses, thereby entitling them to be crowned Champions of the Coastal Conference.

First row—J. P. Cauley, Joe Dudley, William Haddock, Billy Butler, Earl Wright, Larry Toler, Bobby Walker, Ed Thompson, Coach.

Second row—Sammy Cutler, James Toler, John Hellen, Jimmy Arthur, John Laughinghouse, Calvin Miller.

Third row—Tommy Haddock, Luby Mills, Jack Taylor, J. L. Peterson, Clarence Powell, Charles Spruill.

Baseball

With baseball season not yet here, we do not know exactly what kind of team we will have this year, but with most of last year's team back we have excellent prospects of a good season. So best of luck to the boys on the diamond.

A C T I V I T I E S
